Second Edition.

The Nepal arrived from Yokohama this morning having left on the 10th. The fleet was still there. The only political news was that the Governor of Kiangwan had reported to the Tycoon the effective manner in which the British troops went through their drill, that put those who had requested that they might all come to Yedo and there give a general review.

We take the following from the Japan Herald of the 6th.

Opinion to the P. & O.

We have been informed that arrangements have been made to run the Hoover between this port and Shanghai, in connection with the Mesmeria. This ship will be sent right through to Marsella. It is probable that the Hoover will be back in time for the Mail having Shanghai on the 21st, but this is doubtful. It will however be of great interest to the public to know that the Hoover will now be more regular in her services than ever before, and will arrive through from this. We are told the charges will be very much on the scale of the P. & O. Co.

On the Nepal's accident.

We desire to call your attention to the fact that the Nepal will leave for the Amakiri on the 21st, and will be at the port of Ningpo on the 24th. It is probable that the Nepal will be back in time for the Mail having Shanghai on the 21st, but this is doubtful. It will however be of great interest to the public to know that the Nepal will now be more regular in her services than ever before, and will arrive through from this. We are told the charges will be very much on the scale of the P. & O. Co.

Second Edition.

The Nepaul arrived from Yokohama this morning having left on the 10th. The boat was still there. The only political news was that the Governor of Kaungwa having reported to the Tycoon the effective manner in which the British troops went through their drill, that potentate had requested that they might all come to Yedo and there give a grand review.

We take the following from the Japan Herald of the 5th.

Opposition to the P. & O.

We have been informed that arrangements have been made to run the Rosa between this port and Macao by our Firm, and that the Portuguese, signing Bills of Lading right through to Macao. It is probable that the Rosa may be back from Hukoddu in time for the Mail leaving Shanghai on the 21st, but this is doubtful. It will however be of great interest to the public to know whether mail by this vessel will be forwarded by ship to Macao.

We are told the charges will be very much on the scale of the P. & O. Co.

On the Nepaul's accident.

We observe in another column a notice that the Nepaul will leave here for Hongkong to-morrow. Really the energy displayed and the expedition attained throughout the whole of this unfortunate voyage, is worthy the highest commendation. We hope the vessel will be rewarded. Capt. Wilkinson will probably receive a prompt censure from his Directors, who always say something, however unavoidable an accident may be, but such skill as well as energy as he has shown, can only be equalled with the best of the universal crew. We trust he will be rewarded by all who know him, cannot but be taken into account by them in their consideration of the matter.
